

PES policies were designed to respect all involved parties and their schedules. They reflect what you may expect if your child were to participate in a paid sport or another therapy situation. Tutoring, like all new learning, is a cumulative process and your child's consistent attendance directly affects their outcomes.

Attendance

- Lesson dates are a set schedule, much like sports practice schedules and private school calendars.
- Each session is typically 2-4 months, often containing an average of 6-7 lessons per month.
- Please arrive 5 minutes early, to the office or online meeting, and have your drink or restroom needs met.
- For in-office lessons, please be onsite 10 minutes before lessons end for overview and pick up.
- In case of extreme weather and WIFI outages, your tutor will contact you if schedule changes are necessary.
- In-office illness policy – As with school attendance, if your child has a fever or unsettled stomach (nausea, vomiting) within the last 24 hours stay home to avoid spreading your illness. If your child was not well enough to attend school on a lesson day, then they would not attend tutoring lessons either.
- Online illness policy - a lesson may be attended even if the child is unwell. The decision to cease or continue with a “sick day” lesson will be at the discretion of the tutor. _____ Initial _____ Date

Lesson Makeup

- If your tutor is absent then you will be offered a credit towards your next session registration or an additional makeup scheduled within the same month as the tutor's absence at a mutually agreeable time and date.
- Free makeup lessons are offered 2 times a year, on a day scheduled by your tutor. These days are pre-scheduled and noted on your calendar, not provided as needed and are not “banked”. RSVP required.
- If your child attends in person lessons, then they may also have 2 remote makeup lessons per school year. These are provided on the regular dates and times as the typical schedule. The only difference is the venue.
- Lesson cancellations within 24 hours are eligible for the upcoming lesson make-up.
- Forgotten lessons will not be made up or rescheduled.
- Arriving at office lessons or logging in to online lessons 15 minutes late constitutes a forgotten lesson.
- If you are unable to attend a lesson, provide at least 24 hours notice.
- Lessons will not be rescheduled for any reasons including - vacations, parties, school events, camps, or medical appointments. _____ Initial _____ Date

Payment

- Price - Tuition may be paid monthly or per session.
 - Full session payments (rather than monthly) include a payment discount (no monthly fee).
 - Tuition due date - the first day of each month. Reminders not provided.
 - New client first payment through Venmo due the same day as registration.
 - All following payments may only be a mailed check or ACH automatic withdrawal.
- Late payments
 - A late fee of $30 will be added to every month's tuition arriving after the first of the month.
 - After initial payment is made, payment requests are sent only when tuition is late and accrue an additional $30 per request, on top of the late fee.
 - Late payments may result in lesson suspension or termination.
- All payments, including deposits, are non-refundable and non-transferable.
- To retain tutors of the highest quality and provide professional development to keep them abreast of current research, tuition rates increase annually with fall registration at a typical rate of 8-10%.
- Services included in your tuition include all planning, materials and lesson time.
 - Typical communications are included in your lesson fee, about 20 minutes per week.
 - Consultations with school and other service providers are additional and billed as such.
 - The initial program plan is included in your tuition. Other reports may be requested and billed accordingly.
 - If you would like additional planned work, homework, your tutor may be able to provide that as billable hours.
 - IEP/504 consultation may be accessible depending upon current PES availability and it is billed accordingly.
